

KELLSTROM DEFENSE APPOINTS CHOON MENG LOO AS DIRECTOR OF NEW BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT FOR ASIA

CAMARILLO, CA, June 7, 2016 – Kellstrom Defense, a Dubin Clark & Company portfolio company, is pleased to announce the appointment of Choon Meng Loo as Director of Business Development for Asia. Mr. Loo will be responsible for expanding customer relationships and new business opportunities for the Asia region, and will be focused on driving growth in countries including Singapore, Thailand, Malaysia, Korea, Taiwan, Japan, Philippines, Indonesia and Vietnam. Loo will report directly to Stuart Reid, EVP of Sales and Marketing, and will be based in Singapore.

In announcing the appointment, Chris Celtruda; Chief Executive Officer for MEREX Group and Kellstrom Defense comments; “We are pleased to have Choon Meng join our core business development team. Asia Pacific is a very strategic territory for us, and having one of our key employees based in region allows us to better serve our customer base”.

Mr. Loo previously served as General Manager of Rockwell Collins’ APAC Intertrade business, overseeing four product lines: avionics, airframes, engines, and military products. Prior to this position, he served as Sales and Marketing Manager for ST Aerospace Engines, where he ran new business development activities for T56, T53, J85, and F100 engines among others.

Mr. Loo has also served as a Senior Technician with the Singapore Air Force for eight years. This critical experience gave him a rounded knowledge of aircraft systems and avionics. He holds dual degrees in Electrical Engineering and Computer Science.
